Description

Two storey mid terraced house with potential to extend into the loft space subject to the relevant planning consent.

Entered from a small front garden you step into a welcoming tiled entrance hall, with a versatile reception/bedroom to your left. The hall opens into an impressive open-plan lounge, dining area, and kitchen. This bright space features:

- Fully fitted kitchen
- Spotlights and roof lights for ample natural illumination
- Bi-fold doors overlooking the garden

The seamless design creates a perfect blend of indoor-outdoor living, ideal for both relaxation and entertaining. This modern home combines style and functionality, offering a comfortable and inviting living space flooded with natural light.

The first floor boasts two spacious double bedrooms and a versatile box room ideal for a single bed, home office or study. Wood strip flooring extends from the landing throughout these rooms. A modern family bathroom with fully tiled walls and floors completes this level.

The garden features a low-maintenance design with a inviting decked area for outdoor relaxation. A neatly laid lawn extends the usable space, while a shed at the garden's end provides convenient storage. This well-planned outdoor area offers easy upkeep and ample room for enjoyment.

Location

Denison Road is nestled in the heart of Colliers Wood, southwest London. The property is just a 5-minute walk (0.3 miles) from Colliers Wood Underground Station, offering Northern Line services with direct access to central London.
