Description

A ground floor vacant commercial space previously occupied and operated as a charity shop
The layout currently is an open retail space leading into a store room with a further office room to the rear with kitchenette and WC, the property also has the benefit of rear access.

The internal area is approximately 1,250 sq ft and the current use is E class

Location

The property occupies a prominent position within Craddocks Parade, a popular and established local shopping parade in the Surrey village of Ashtead.

The parade supports a vibrant mix of independent occupiers, cafés and service businesses and benefits from consistent pedestrian flow generated by the surrounding residential catchment, there is also a constant traffic flow with parking outside allowing possible customers to pull up.?

Ashtead mainline station is within a short walk, approximately 0.2 miles away, providing regular services to London Waterloo, and Junction 9 of the M25 is readily accessible at Leatherhead

Business Rates

Interested parties are advised to make their own enquiries with the local authority and to verify the current rateable value with the Valuation Office Agency.

Rent & Lease terms

£30,000 per annum

The property is offered with a brand new lease, terms to be agreed by negotiation
