Description

A detached period home offering excellent scope for renovation, reconfiguration and extension potential, subject to the usual consents, positioned in a sought-after residential road in Teddington.

Available to the market with vacant potential for a purchaser to create a bespoke family home, sub divide or create an alternative use (possible commercial)

This attractive gable-fronted property combines original character with versatile accommodation arranged across the main house and a substantial two-storey side addition.

The ground floor includes an entrance hall, front reception room with bay window, a further interconnecting reception area, and a kitchen with adjoining breakfast area/lobby. The side section incorporates an additional ground-floor room which could suit use as a bedroom, study or reception room, together with a cloakroom/WC and access to the garden.

On the first floor, the original house provides two bedrooms and a bathroom, including a principal front bedroom with bay window. A separate staircase within the side addition leads to a further generous room, creating flexible accommodation that may suit a third or fourth bedroom, workspace, guest area or annexe-style arrangement.

Outside, the property benefits from a side garden and a smaller rear garden, with gated side access. The gardens now require landscaping but provide an excellent blank canvas for improvement.

All measurements are approximate and for illustrative purposes only. Not to scale.

Purchasers are advised to make their own enquiries with the relevant admissions authority regarding eligibility, availability and catchment arrangements.

Two titles

The house is sites across two separate titles suggesting this could be split creating 2 houses, this would need investigation with the local planning authority and is subject to any relevant consents
